

rania matar Ordinary Lives

10/27 - 12/13/09

Reception: 10/29/09

5:00-7:00 pm

rania
matar

Gallery talk with Rania Matar
@ 6:30 pm

is a photographer who focuses on women and children in the Middle East. The content of the images are universal ideas on being human and include photographs from four bodies of work; The Aftermath of War, The Veil, Lost Memories and The Forgotten People. Matar was one of four finalists for the 2008 James and Audrey Foster Prize from the Institute of Contemporary Art, Boston.

Ordinary Lives

Co - hosted by The Gallery at Mount Ida College and the Center for Arabic Culture.
www.mountida.edu/gallery
www.cacboston.org

MOUNT IDA college
From Potential to Achievement
the gallery

777 Dedham Street
Newton, MA 02459
617-928-4768

Gallery Hours:
Tuesday - Sunday 1:00-5:00pm
Closed November 20-29, for Thanksgiving