

RANIA MATAR (Brookline, MA), Zoe 17, Newton, 2009, Archival inkjet print, 24 x 36 inches, courtesy of the artist and Gallery Kayafas

"A Girl and her Room" focuses on teenage girls in the privacy of their own rooms, often the only space which they fully control and reflects their personalities best. www.raniamatar.com

JESS T. DUGAN (Cambridge, MA), Nikki, 2006, Gelatin silver prints, 20 x 16 inches, courtesy of the artist and Gallery Kayafas

This body of work explores issues of gender, identity, and human nature. www.jessdugan.com

LAURA SWANSON (Providence, RI), Self-Portrait: Peggy Lee, Digital C-Print, 20 x 30 inches, courtesy of the artist

This series of self-portraits represents a discomfort at being looked at as well as a desire to reclaim authority over self image. www.lauraswanson.com

RI ANDERSON (San Miguel de Allende, Gto., Mexico), Untitled, 2009, Archival inkjet print, 40 x 30 inches, courtesy of the artist

"The Secret Sibling World of Love, Hate, and Fantasy" explores the primordial world shared by my two daughters, aged three and six. www.rianderson.com